Foreword

During the four years that our class has been in high school, it has been our policy to combine originality, imagination, enthusiasm, cooperation, and constant hard work to overcome a seemingly stagnant, stereotyped school life. By encouraging INDIVIDUAL thinking, thereby producing new and different combinations of old ideas, our class has deviated from set patterns. In accordance with this background, the 1962 Gagashoan staff has chosen INDIVIDUALISM as its theme.

Our "Nebnik" cartoons throughout the book have been used to symbolize INDIVIDUALISM.

Dedication

Miss Marjorie Wells, to you we dedicate this Gagashoan, for you have exceeded your official duties as a class advisor. Your friendliness, vivacity and genial sense of humor have endeared you to our hearts. Under your wonderful guidance, we have become a class noted for leadership, originality and setting new precedents. Your untiring labor and devotion have spurred us on to greater heights. The sincerity and faithfulness with which you have performed your tasks will long serve as an aspiration to the Class of 1962.

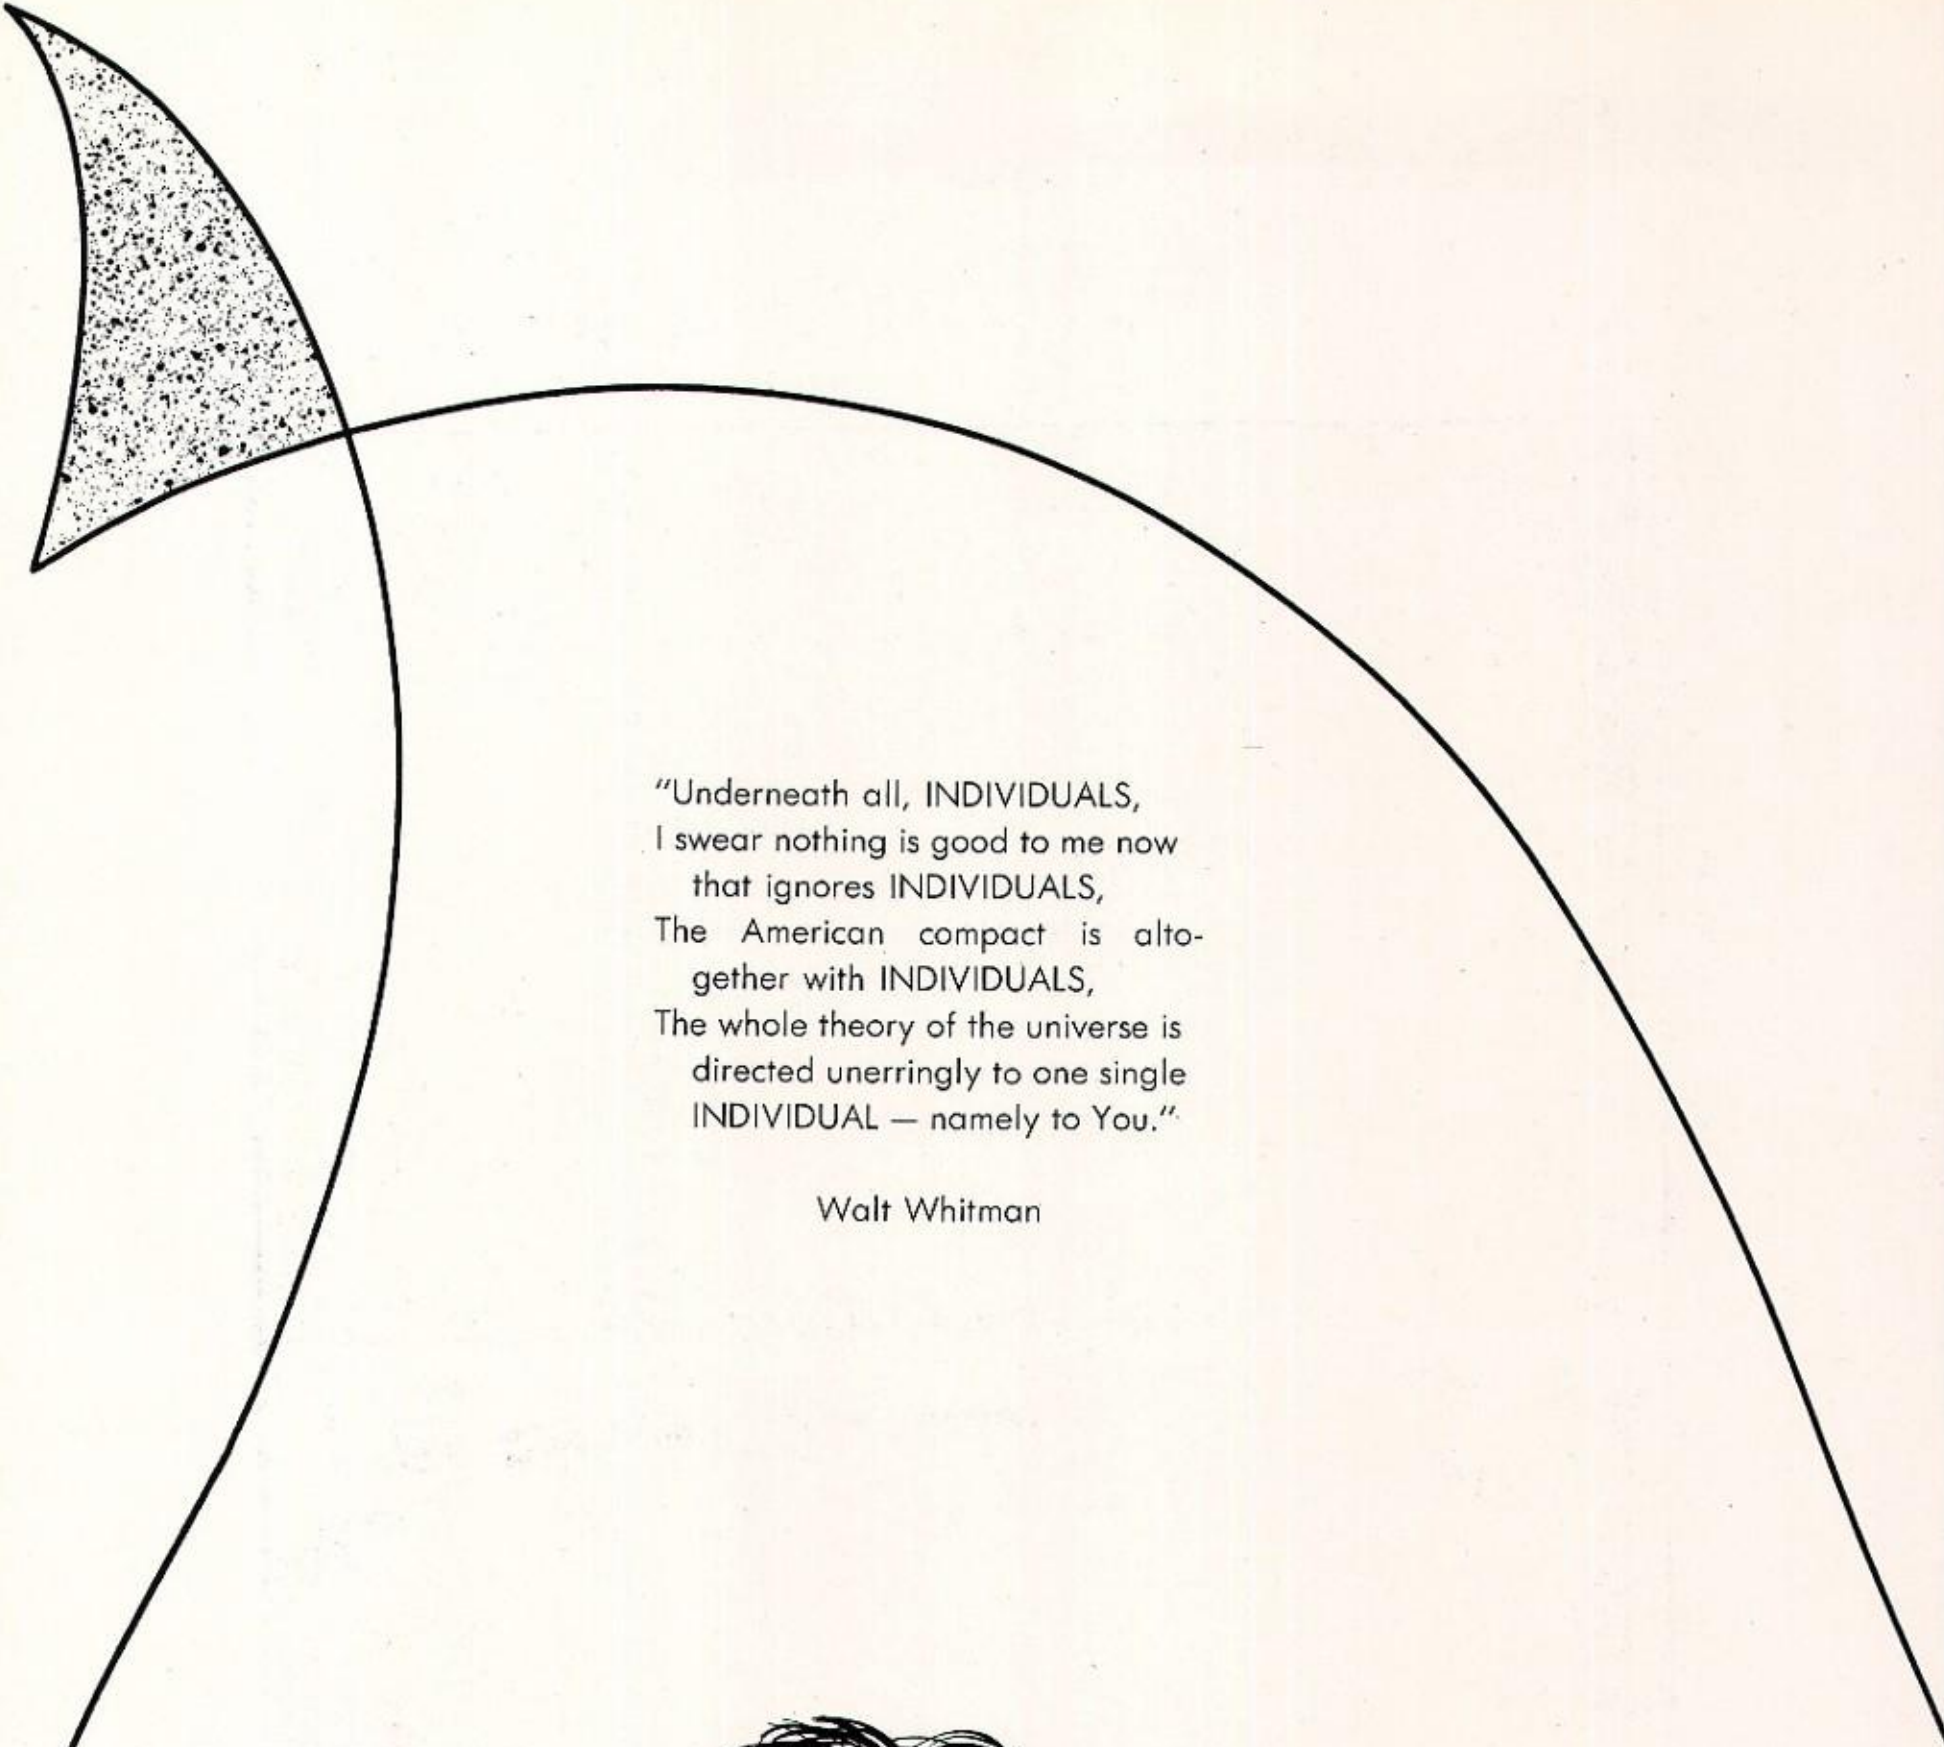

Miss Wells in Aschaffenburg, Germany.

We, the Class of 1962, honor you, Miss Lina Brownell, for your enthusiasm and your "never-say-die" spirit, which have helped us over the rocky paths encountered during the final year of our school career. The memory of your warm smile and ready wit will remain with us forever.

Miss Brownell and the magazine campaign.

"Underneath all, INDIVIDUALS,
I swear nothing is good to me now
that ignores INDIVIDUALS,
The American compact is altogether with INDIVIDUALS,
The whole theory of the universe is directed unerringly to one single INDIVIDUAL — namely to You."

Administration and Board of Education

Mr. Frank J. O'Donnell
Principal

Our new high school, the most recent school plant, is supervised by Mr. F. J. O'Donnell, principal. His chief concerns center around the problems of the student body and the faculty in our school. Diligently and prudently, he directs the course that each day will follow.

Over the years the East Rochester School system has experienced the pangs of expansion and improvement. It now consists of three separate school plants; each a part of one's educational experience. Mr. L. C. Obourn, Superintendent of Schools, has guided this development through his perseverance and relentless effort. The Board of Education, elected representatives of the village, spend innumerable hours approving academic programs, evaluating extra-curricular activities, and formulating school policies. The responsibilities, which rest upon the shoulders of each member of the Board have a prodigious effect upon the future progress of the East Rochester Public School system. Within their hands rest a great number of decisions which determine the adequacy of our school system and the advantages it will offer to the students and to the community.

FRESHMAN CLASS

SOPHOMORE CLASS

With their win in the Song Contest still fresh in their minds, the Sophomores set a new precedent by presenting their Sophomore Hop "Snowflake Shuffle" in January instead of autumn, as in past years. Under the guidance of Miss Laura Cashion, the Sophomores added to their treasury this spring with a profitable sales campaign.

National Honor Society

It is a great honor to be chosen as a member of the National Honor Society. This group is one of the most exceptional organizations in high school. It is made up of students who excel in scholarship, leadership, citizenship and school spirit. The many rewards reaped from N.H.S. are well worth the efforts made to attain this goal.

Projectionists' Club

This organization of boys from all classes is instrumental in the spread of knowledge through the visual medium. Trained in the techniques of running projectors, they donate their time and effort in order to show movies to various classes. Their work is appreciated by both faculty and students.

The Library Club, under the direction of Mr. Melvin Johnson, has done much to pave the way to greater knowledge. The members are required to maintain a fair grade of scholarship and devote at least one period a week working in the library. The experience acquired from participation in this organization prepares the individual for better work later in life.

Future Homemakers

F.H.A. is a newly formed organization in E.R.H.S. designed to train its members in domestic arts. This group, headed by Miss Edith Henry, meets on the first and third Mondays of each month. The many activities of F.H.A. include knitting and sewing for charitable organizations, making cookies for parties given for handicapped children, and sponsoring cookie sales one afternoon a month.

Future Teachers

This newly formed organization in East Rochester High School has done much to aid the students interested in teaching as a profession. Monthly meetings, guest speakers, and field trips to centers of education highlight this group's annual activities. Learning by doing and perfecting the knowledge gained offer the student a greater opportunity to survey future careers.

Varsity Club

The Varsity Club, an organization of athletes, takes an active part in school life and helps to promote school spirit. Under the guidance of Mr. Quinn, this relatively new club sells ribbons, provides ushers for basketball games, and provides various activities for the students. These activities include: promoting a victory dance, a hay-ride, and selling football dolls and pennants. This club is a goal for boys to work for and it is an honor to belong to this helpful organization.

With many boys out for the team, coach McLane, had enough players for a J.V. and a Freshman team. The J.V.'s won 2, tied 1, and lost 3, while the Freshman won 2, tied 1, and lost 1. These boys have gained valuable experience and many should be ready for varsity next year.

Following the basketball tradition set here, the J.V. Basketball team swept to an undefeated season. The Junior Bombers, winners of 46 games in a row over a three year period, show fine promise for coming years. A sparkling offense and a tight defense overwhelmed most of the teams, but a few squeakers added suspense to the season. These hustling cagemen showed amazing coolness and poise while capturing their third J.V. title in a row.

Varsity Basketball

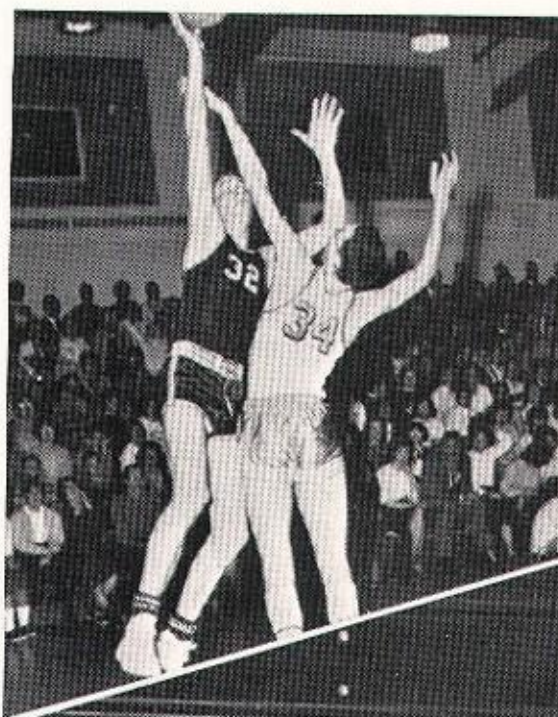

This year's Varsity Basketball team completed the first undefeated season in the history of the school. The boys worked hard through the long season and combined individual efforts as a team to win another Monroe County AA title. Although the fighting Bombers never lost, their spirit was rejuvenated in such games as Eastridge, Brockport, and Fairport. With a well balanced starting five backed up by a strong bench, the Bombers led by Coach John Baynes, by the merit of their 18-0 record, gained their perennial sectional berth.

This year's wrestling team completed another undefeated season under the coaching of Mr. Quinn. Never being really extended, the grapplers won their 33rd match in a row while winning the title. Undefeated during the season were Tom Vergo, undefeated in 4 years of league matches, John Ventura, Gay Schojan, Tony DiBerardinis, and Sam Sirianno. The team also added the Auburn tournament to their victory string. Winners of the County Tournament were Tom Vergo, Jim Ransco, Dennis Gurecki, Frank Megale, and Joe DiFelice.

Initiative and originality are the standards set up by the Class of 1963. The Juniors have proven this to be a fact throughout their most crucial year by designing an entirely new style of class ring, and by producing their Junior Prom, "Southern Cotillion," a memorable evening of enchantment. Under the able guidance of Mrs. Sylvia Barrett, the Junior Class is sure to soar to even greater heights in their final year.

Class of 1962 Makes Vivid History

At the beginning of our freshman year, we were introduced to Miss Marjorie Wells, our spirited class advisor. It was she who held the golden key to success for our class. By means of her untiring efforts and guidance, the immense supply of potential within our class was released. A rare combination of intangible attributes set us apart from all other classes at East Rochester — togetherness, cooperation, determination, originality, enthusiasm.

It was with these qualities that we eagerly leaped into the humdrum of school activities. We exhibited our unique originality by initiating unprecedented football attendance contests between the Frosh and Sophs, and our Freshman Car Wash (Saturday, May 16, 1959). We closed the curtain on our freshman year with another first, the first dance ever to be held in the gymnasium at the new high school. The Frosh Frolic, "April in Paris," presented itself on April 17, 1959, enhancing the gym with a flourish of Paris.

Then we were newly assured Sophomores. With determination and enthusiasm we plunged headlong into our first sophomore project, a candy sale. Our seemingly bottomless class treasury began to fill up. November 20th, 1959, added to the growing list of accomplishments of our class. This was the date of the Sophomore Hop, "Secundo Saltarello," which featured Jack Friel. Besides uniquely creating an Italian air in the gym, we instituted the unparalleled event of having class members perform at this dance.

It seemed only yesterday that we had been awed Freshmen wandering in the halls of E.R., but here we were, upperclassmen and school leaders. The first project of our junior year revealed our salesmanship, as we canvassed the town successfully selling lightbulbs. With the Christmas season came our long awaited mark of INDIVIDUALISM — our new and entirely different class rings! The night of May 5th, 1961, was the gala opening of "Tropicana," the sensational Junior Prom — palm trees, tropical plants, colorful murals, two water falls, a center fountain, a fenced-in dance floor, the dreamy voice of a vocalist, and the soft strains of the Don Page Orchestra.

But the end of our prosperous junior year was to bring sorrowful news to our class. In June we were informed that Miss Marjorie Wells would be our advisor no longer. In appreciation for her guidance and out of affection for her as an INDIVIDUAL, we planned a surprise banquet in her honor at the East Rochester Country House. After the dinner, entertainment was provided by a group of boys singing "If you knew Margie like we knew Margie, Oh, Oh, what a girl!" and a group of girls singing the tear-provoking "We'll Remember You Always . . ." Next our Junior Class President presented Miss Wells with our bon voyage gifts — luggage and a charm bracelet with charms symbolizing all our class activities from a football for freshman football attendance contests to a graduation cap for our commencement exercises. Thus we spent the summer of 1961 wondering who was to continue the guidance of our class.

Yes, as unbelievable as it may seem, we were grand old Seniors. This was to be our last year at E.R.H.S., a year full of conflicting emotions — dignity, sorrow, humility, joy, pride.

At our first class meeting as Seniors, we were introduced to our new advisor, Miss Lina Brownell. She led us in our first Senior project, the traditional magazine sale. After a long, hard campaign, our class treasury was full, and the Washington trip seemed more a reality. The Senior Play Dino, was an excellent theatrical production which reaped still more profits for our class. Then the day of our hard earned Senior Party arrived. After the buffet dinner, a hilarious evening of unforgettable entertainment followed — "ha-ha," twisting, musical chairs, statues, the "first date," the girls singing and pantomiming.

April 16th through April 19th, four wonderful days whose memories shall never be forgotten — our Washington trip.

Just before June examinations, our anxiously awaited yearbooks arrived. Not only is our 1962 Gagashoan a pictorial history of our novel projects, it is also a record of the spirit of our class — the spirit of INDIVIDUALISM. June 23, 1962, the date of our graduation, was suddenly upon us. Slowly, proudly, and sadly, we each received our diplomas and congratulations. The time had come when we were to betake ourselves from the halls and the friendships of E.R.H.S., and there came a tear to the youthful eye and a pang to the carefree heart as we remembered the joys that would never be again.

Frontuto

A hand-drawn illustration of a glass jar containing a specimen. The jar is labeled "62" at the top, "Rodamense" below it, "Swamp Fox" in the middle, and "DeBar" at the bottom. The drawing is done in a simple, sketchy style with black ink on a white background. The jar has a wide mouth and a slightly tapered body. The text is written in a casual, handwritten font. The "62" is in quotes. The "Rodamense" is written in a cursive-like script. The "Swamp Fox" is in a bold, sans-serif font. The "DeBar" is in a simple, blocky font. There are some small, illegible marks around the jar, possibly representing other specimens or labels.

CLASS OF '62

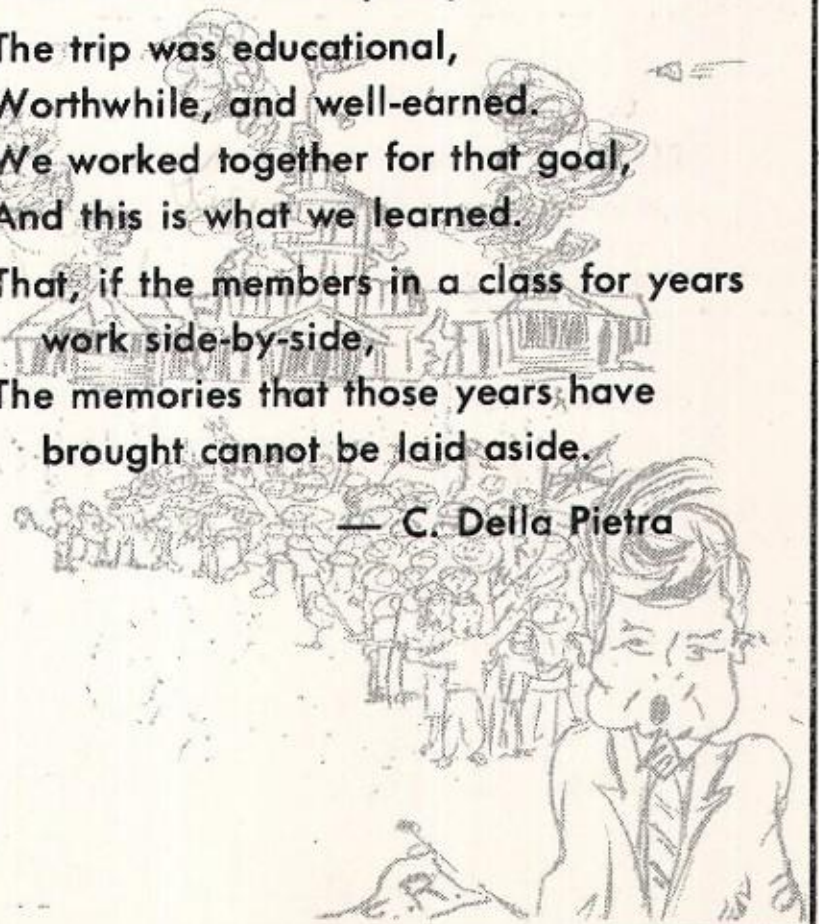

The Freshman class of '62
Was given one big goal,
And so to make their dream come true
Each person played his role.

The Senior trip to Washington
Seemed, oh! so far away.
We worked real hard, and had our fun.
Then came that lucky day.

The trip was educational,
Worthwhile, and well-earned.
We worked together for that goal,
And this is what we learned.

That, if the members in a class for years
work side-by-side,
The memories that those years have brought cannot be laid aside.

— C. Della Pietra

Go a real, swell
kid. It's been fun being in HomeRoom
but I hope we don't have to have the same lockers
all the rest of our stay at P.B.H.S.
always remember what Mr. B.
said about the chair.
Pam Eisenhart

Bert, best
The luck to one of my friends. we
Have had a lot of fun
this year as fresh man
but I expect a lot more go out for football
and I can tear you apart.

conrad Remember all the fun you had to get together about this year and I have had to worry about He's just having fun. losing those 20 pounds you have to
to become 150 - but football will help!!

Thanks for hope so. HNP go to a dance next year
you have just got to take luck to the dance and dance
The twist!!! you'll take a good job in track this year!!
next time you did a good job in track this year!!
hope so. One of your best friends
